THE FIRST SNOW-FALL.

BY JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL.
The snow had begun in the gloaming, And busily all the night Had been heaping field and highway With a silence deep and white.

Every pine, and fir, and hemlock, Wore ermine too dear for an earl,
And the poorest twig on the elm tree Was fringed inch-deep with pearl.

From sheds now roofed with Carrara Came Chaucer's muffled crew, The stiff rails were softened to swan's down—And still fluttered down the snow.

I stood and watched by the window
The noiseless work of the sky,
And the sudden furies of snow-birds, Like brown leaves whirling by.

I thought of a mound in sweet Auburn, Where a little headstone stood—How the flakes were folding it gently, As did robins the babes in the wood.

Up spoke our little Mabel, Saying, "Father, who makes the snow?"
And I told her of the good All Father, Who watches his children below.

I remember the gradual patience That fell from the cloud-like snow, Flake by flake, hearing and hiding The scar of that deep-stabbed woe.

And again to the child I whispered,
"The snow that husheth all, Darling, the Merciful Father Alone can make it fall."

Then, with eyes that saw not, I kissed her,
And she, kissing back, could not know That my kiss was given to her sister, Folded close under deepening snow.

LOST IN THE WOOD, AND FOUND SHOT.—One day last week, John Morrison and Thomas Daniels were hunting on the hills north of Milford village, and not being familiar with the country, were lost. Daniels lost Morrison, but could not find him, and after three days searching by the citizens he was discovered lying on his back, his feet under him, his gun on his breast, tightly clasped in his hand, with a terrible and fatal wound in his forehead. He may have shot himself, to terminate his sufferings from hunger and cold.—Bangor Whig.

PRESENTATION.—Mr. John Hennessy, of Lispenard street, on Thursday evening, was presented with an elegant gold watch by Fernando Wood, in behalf of the "National Democracy of New York." Mr. Hennessy responded in an appropriate manner, and declared that the Irish of New York are in favor of the Union, and that, if necessary, he is ready to go to South Carolina to help to put down treason by force.

A COURAGEOUS GIRL.—A few nights ago, a young girl in York, Pa., while returning from church, was seized by a ruffian, who thrust his thumb in her mouth to prevent alarm from being given, at the same time dragging her in an alley. The girl bit his thumb as severely as she could, and the scoundrel made a violent jerk to free himself, and in the effort broke out three of her teeth! She then escaped from him and got home without further violence.
Her safety depended upon her physical powers, which were, fortunately, adequate to the emergency.

An ingenious attorney, who always made it a point to get the case, was applied to by a man who had stolen some pork, to defend him. Accordingly, in his usual inventive way, he ruined the principal evidence on which the plaintiff relied, and the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. After the verdict was declared, as the fellow was leaving the court-house, he whispered to his attorney thus: "Squire, what shall I do with the pork, for I have got it yet?"
"Eat it," replied the lawyer, "for the jury say you did not steal it."

A supernumerary was once intrusted to deliver the following message to Lord Randolph, in the play:
"My lord, the banquet waits," but having lost the run of the sentence, he called out, amid the roars of the audience, "Mr. Randolph, your supper has been ready for some time."

"Ah!" said a pious Sunday School teacher;
"ah, Caroline Jones, what do you think you would have been without your good father and pious mother?" "I suppose, mum," said Caroline, who was very much struck with the soft appeal, "I suppose, mum, as I should have been a orphan."

A child of a shoemaker, in one of the more fertile counties in Oregon, had, a few weeks since, one of his father's boots in a hole dug in the vegetable garden. The next morning, one of the principal attractions in the enclosure was a leather-tree loaded with brogans.

The New York Post states that Henry Stevens, of this country, has bought Humboldt's library just as he left it. The catalogue consists of twelve thousand titles—about six thousand bound volumes, and the rest small books and pamphlets. Many of the books are very bulky and costly.

FEMALE SKATERS.—The gay lads and lasses waltz and polka on skates in the Central Park, New York. A Miss Wilson is considered the star, and it is averred that she can double shuffle with her skates on.

FRIENDS' MEETING.—Mrs. Eliza P. Gurney, a Minister of the Society of Friends, (widow of the late Joseph John Gurney, of Norwich, England), preached an impressive sermon in Boston a few evenings ago.

The Chinese picture of ambition is "a mandarin trying to catch a comet by putting salt on his tail."

National Republican

VOL. I. WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1860. No. 25.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WEEKLY NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December, 1860.
The undersigned have commenced the publication, in this city, of a weekly newspaper, called the National Republican.
It is printed on a large sheet, 27 by 42 inches, and is furnished at the low prices stated below.
It will contain all the original matter of the daily National Republican, with the exception of local news not interesting to country subscribers.
It will give full reports of the proceedings of Congress, and of the other departments of the National Government.
It will contain all the news of the day, foreign and domestic, markets, &c., &c., as well as an original correspondence from all parts of the country. The miscellaneous department will receive special attention, and, in all respects, the work will be made to establish the character of the National Republican as a FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

In politics, the paper will be Republican, supporting the incoming Administration of Mr. Lincoln, but disclaiming, however, any pretension to be the organ of the President elect.
There is no other Republican paper in the District of Columbia, or in the vicinity of it, and it is believed that recent events have opened to such a paper an important sphere of useful effect. The time has come, when the actual administration of the Government upon Republican principles will explode the misrepresentations which have made those principles so distasteful to the South.
But it is not only here, and in this vicinity, at the projects of the National Republican to make it useful. To the whole country we offer a journal which will discuss national affairs from a national standpoint, and which will never be swayed from patriotic duty by any overpowering pressure of local interest.

LADD, WEBSTER, & CO'S IMPROVED TIGHT-STITCH SEWING MACHINES.
A few of the many reasons why these Sewing Machines are preferred above all others.

1. They are remarkably simple in their construction. A child can operate them, and understand the mechanism.
2. They are the strongest Sewing Machine made. It is almost impossible to break or get them out of order.
3. They are sure in their operation; finishing the work in a uniformly perfect manner.
4. They make a tight lock-stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be unravelled.
5. They stitch, hem, bind, fell, run, and gather, without basting.
6. They sew equally well the lightest and the heaviest fabrics.
7. They sew over the heaviest seams without changing the tension or breaking the finest thread.
8. They use any No. of Cotton, Thread, or Silk, directly from the spool.
9. They use a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.
10. The needle has a perpendicular motion.
This is absolutely necessary for heavy work.
11. They have a wheel feed; none others are in constant contact with the work.
12. They run easily and almost noiseless.
13. They are not liable to oil the dress of the operator.
14. They do not require a screw-driver to set the needle.
15. They do not have to be taken apart to oil or clean.
16. They do not form ridges on the under side of the work, nor ravel out, nor are they wasteful of thread, as is the case with all chain-stitch machines.
17. They are capable of doing a greater range of work, and in a more perfect manner, than any other Sewing Machine, as is proved by the result of our challenge for a trial, which has never been accepted.
